

Solar Power

Pros

-in the far north in the summer they would only get sun for 3 months which would be really good for the environment

-one of the biggest benefits of solar power is with solar panels you can get electricity that can give power to your home which will make your electric bill go way down

-better for the environment (no carbon footprint), and is renewable (never ending supply of sunlight)

~